(January 13, 2014) --- 'Bouncy Sheep – The Saga Begins' is an exciting new app that lets you experience a quirky adventure on your phone or tablet. The game objective is to bounce the sheep using your fingertip and help them avoid obstacles like flying cacti, rolling boulders, scary blades, or rotating platforms in order to reach the safety of home. It is a physics-based arcade game that is intriguing and addictive and will help you take a quick break from your routine.

"This is a really fantastic game, very addictive and a fun way to relax."
-Satisfied gamer from the U.K.

One of the most fascinating aspects of the Bouncy Sheep game is that you can get the sheep all dressed up with an array of shoes, hats, glasses and outfits. Coins are earned by completing levels and you can purchase extra coins with real money. The coins can be used to unlock additional accessories or even skip difficult levels.

The main highlights of the Bouncy Sheep app are as follows:

- Easy to learn and addictive arcade game
- Free to download and no ads
- Can be played with only one finger
- Consists of four interesting worlds with over seventy challenging levels
- Dress up the sheep with attractive and funny looking accessories
- Available in nine different languages: English, Norwegian, German, French, Italian, Spanish, Swedish, Danish, and Finnish.

DittDesign has been developing apps since 2012 and with the latest addition of the 'Bouncy Sheep- The Saga Begins', they have gone a step ahead. Tom-Greger Knutsen, the programmer, is the owner of the app development company. The app is absolutely free to download and is available on the Appstore and Google Play Store.
